

Discover the Avant-Scène
at the Palais des Congrès de Paris

Make every show an unforgettable experience

The Avant-Scène offers privileged access to an exceptional evening from the moment you step through its doors. With a maximum seating capacity of 90, this exclusive space guarantees a timeless atmosphere, where the memory of 50 years of moments that have made the history of the legendary Palais des Congrès de Paris stage is still alive.

Whether you're a company looking to impress your B2B partners, or a show enthusiast, the Avant-Scène opens its doors to all those seeking an incomparable experience.

Make your evenings spectacular with the new reception area at the Palais des Congrès de Paris

Welcome to the exclusive world of the Avant-Scène at the Palais des Congrès de Paris, a prestigious experience combining art, decoration and hospitality in a unique way. Take full advantage of the magic of the Grand Amphithéâtre by combining a show ticket with the Avant-Scène hospitality offer.

Customisable offers to suit everyone

A B2C offer coupled with shows

- Welcome 01h30 before the show, with a cocktail reception at the Avant-Scène, followed by seating in the Grand Amphithéâtre.

- A glass of champagne is served during the intermission in a dedicated area of the foyer.

OPTIONAL

- Programme of the show.

- Return to the Avant-Scène at the end of the show for a relaxing drink and some sweet treats.

This offer is also available to our B2B customers who wish to offer their guests a timeless hospitality experience before attending a show.

An exclusive B2B offer

The Avant-Scène is also available to be rented by our B2B customers who want a unique space for their small gatherings, whether for informal meetings or more confidential evenings. Their guests will be tempted to sit around the piano, sip a cocktail at the bar or even browse through a book on the life of Charles Aznavour.
